3PV – Third Party Verification, Inc. Announces Free Trial of FastTrak® TPV

Altamonte Springs, Florida, August 31, 2004 — 3PV – Third Party Verification, the leader in speech enabled verification solutions, invites customers to take the 3PV “Head to Head” challenge by comparing their current third party verification (TPV) solution against a free trial of FastTrak® TPV.

FastTrak TPV blends automated scripts with live agents to deliver superior results, guaranteed FCC and 50 state compliance. Customers in the U.S. who qualify can now receive a free trial of FastTrak with no set up fees or charges for verifications during the trial offer. If not completely satisfied at the end of the trial offer, simply stop using the service at the end of the trial period with no further obligation and at no charge.

FastTrak TPV is cost-effective, compliant and easy to use. Intuitive opt-out routing to live agents delivered completion rates of 98.3% in 2003 – the highest documented rates in the industry. FastTrak TPV pricing is all-inclusive: no extra charges for incomplete calls, recording retrieval and storage, real-time Web-based reporting and 24x7 customer support. Agent review, callback and confirmation callback services are available.

All verification scripts are reviewed by 3PV’s in-house regulatory team for compliance with FCC, PSC/PUC, FTC and 50 state rules. Live agent staff is in-house and in-country – and completely dedicated to third party verifications.

“FastTrak TPV is third party verification at its best: easy to use, easy to access and now easy to try with this new free trial offering,” said David W. Brinkman, CEO of 3PV. “When we piloted this trial offer to select customers over the summer, we converted each and every one to FastTrak TPV. We’re so confident we can deliver better results than other TPV solution providers, we want prospective customers to make a “Head to Head” comparison for themselves at no cost to them. We believe that once customers experience better results and benefit from our commitment to exceptional customer service, they’ll switch to us once the free trial period is over.
